

Christi Rose

Christi Rose has been playing the harp since age 12, and completed studies at Bob Jones University Harp Performance Department. Her talent and focus brings pure delight and effortless romance to your next project. She is available to play for all special events including weddings, memorial services, wine tasting events, fashion shows, parties, and has of course been a part of several Bridal Expos in the Southern California area.