

Frank Browne

Duo

Playing guitar professionally for 20 years. Frank moved to Southern California after earning his Bachelor of Music from the prestigious University of Miami. His versatility allows him to play a variety of musical styles from rock, jazz, & blues to folk & classical. Frank currently performs with numerous professional acts; some recent highlights include playing for then-President Clinton with the Big Brothers Big Band jazz ensemble, being heard on KLON-FM with the Gary Urwin Studio Orchestra, and performing on Fox Sports Net TV with his swing band, Zoot Suit Revue. He has also performed with artists ranging from Florence Henderson and Frankie Avalon to Brian Setzer. A team up with local top saxophone players, this pleasant duo is a perfect complement to any party!
