

Panache

This unique group specializes in original music, as well as current and older favorites of the Caribbean. The refreshing and exciting sounds of Panache add flare and style to any event. Since 1986, the group has worked throughout the Southern California area. They regularly entertain at conventions, corporate meetings, public concerts, college campuses, and private events. Led by steel drummer Erich Miller, all of Panache's members have musical backgrounds that include reggae, soca, calypso, Latin, jazz and, funk. Erich Miller and Panache come together out of love for music, excellence, and fun!